

About Us

AES is an organisation that offers you a multi cultural learning experience on a world class online platform. We are a powerhouse of experienced academic excellence; innovative teaching methodologies allied with rich and varied learning resources. We believe, learning is a holistic experience and is not restricted to just academics. With the objective of rising the English language communication level of the participants, this program is built with individual's and the organization's needs in mind. The outcome of these programs is aimed at increasing proficiency and assist in working in a global perspective:

- Developed by a team of Language Experts
- Communicative Language Teaching (CLT) method
- Online Classes
- Integrated Learning process involving Listening, reading and writing
- Technology enabled interactivity
- One-to-one speaking sessions
